10 a.m. -Welcome and Program Preview
Opening remarks by Jackie White, Andrew Dalton, and Ken Gavin

10:15 a.m. -Fresh Eggs, Fresh Butter, & Fresh Scandal Broth!
Spectators will join local "country woman" Ms. Praria and learn about typical foodstuffs during this time and also learn some town gossip.

10:45 a.m. -Debating the Cause!
Spectators will witness citizens of 1775 engage in a rousing debate to decide what the best course of action is: remaining loyal to the Crown or rebelling against the Mother Country.

11:00 a.m. -To Arms! To Arms!
Hear Captain Michael Doudle of the 1st PA Regiment proclaim the need for citizens to support the Patriot cause and sign enlistment papers to take home as a keepsake of the day.

11:30 a.m. -Organizing and Drilling the Troops
Following their "official enlistment," spectators will have the opportunity to join Captain Doudle for a light military drill taken from 18th century military manuals.

12: 15 p.m. -Break for Lunch*
Step inside the Dobbin House and order a meal after hard drilling work.

For afternoon activities at the Adams County Historical Society, please see reverse side.
